FIFA FUTSAL Laws of the game Update

Goal clearance

In ages 8 – 11 the Goal Keepers can't throw the ball over over the half way line from a goal clearance. (Indirect kick to opposing team where the ball crosses the half way line)

Also within the goal clearance rules, it no longer says attackers must be outside the area. So, like football, the goalkeeper can lay the ball down inside the area.

Cards for coaches

As in football, coaches can now be red/yellow carded.

Kick off

We can score direct from centre again!!! and kick off can be in any direction.

5 penalty kicks are back from 3 to 5 kicks in a shootout. And the goalkeeper must only have one foot over the line.

Handball

Again, like football, if you gain an advantage from any type of handball then it's a free kick.

The wording has changed to define handball. Basically, deliberate handball is a foul, and if you move you arm towards the ball even accidentally, it's classed as handball.

DOGSO – denying a goal or an obvious goalscoring opportunity

This is now a red card offence no matter where it occurs. A 2v1 a clear goal scoring opportunity.

Having re-read this – if the goalkeeper is in front of his/her own goal, it can't be a DOGSO offence.

Kick in

At the moment of delivering the ball must be stationary on the touchline at the point where it left the pitch or the nearest point to where it touched the ceiling;

All opponents must stand at least 5m from the point on the touchline where the kick-in is to be taken.

The ball is in play when it is kicked and clearly moves.

If the kick-in is taken and then, after it has been in play, the ball goes off the pitch over the same touchline where it was taken without touching any other player, it is retaken by the opposing team from the same location where the original kick-in was taken.

If a player, while correctly taking a kick-in, deliberately kicks the ball at an opponent in order to play the ball again but not in a careless or reckless manner or using excessive force, the referees allow play to continue. The kicker must not touch the ball again until it has touched another player.
